A Charge Against a Kentucky Preacher.

SOME time ago a letter was sent to the Baptist Churches of Millersburg and Falmouth, Ky., which up to this time has been suspended. It reads as follows:

"TO THE CLERGY OF BAPTIST CHURCHES AT FALMOUTH—Your pastor, Rev. J. M. Bell, has been charged with the crime of seducing a minor, and is now in the hands of the law. The facts can be given to a responsible committee of other churches, and the churches of the writer, if assured a fair hearing, will not only present a statement of the facts to the official boards of the two churches, but also to the public."

There has been no response except the claim by the brother that such accusation increases his popularity with the churches. The same charge has been sent to the clerics of the associations with which the two churches stand connected. The charge is preferred by a minister of the Baptist denomination, Rev. J. G. Tinsion, of Covington. The facts are on record, ready for the inspection of any or all of the ministry that desire to know the truth.—(Lexington Enquirer.)

The sin of Ananias and Sapphira was the charge of selling a piece of land for the benefit of the Lord and keeping part of the money and lying about it.

LONDON society is shocked. The Prince of Wales will sell tea at the Fisheries Exhibition to-morrow night for the benefit of the church.

In a colored bastardy suit, recently tried in Hancock county, a colored jury returned the following verdict: "We, the Unlucky Jury Do Knot find the Accused Kint gilty."

Two Arkansas negroes, if they were not both dead, could give the newspaper duellists a few valuable lessons. Their weapons were old army muskets; distance, twenty steps.

PACIFIC KNIGHT's platform of politics for the principles for the Republican party reads thus: "Steal all in sight; hold on to all you can get, and if you don't see what you want, ask for it."

Important news is jingled over the wires to the effect that Ben Barley threatened Jack Wheat in Wayne county. In the presence of John Barlow. The affair no doubt took place in the harvest field.

Rev. HENRY YOUNGER, a colored Baptist preacher, has been indicted at Union City, Tenn., charged with the rape of a little colored girl, aged ten years. He will probably be lynched by a mob of his own people.

WALLACE GRUBBLES, of the Breckinridge News, very truly remarks thusly: "What is the use of examining Col. Morrow's anti-suffrage record? The negroes will vote for him almost to a man, even were it proved that he favored their being remanded into slavery."

Does the colored man know that T. Z. Morrow for whom he is expected to vote was bitterly opposed to the colored man's voting status? He is the same Morrow who got up a series of resolutions declaring that the general Government had no power to grant the right of suffrage to the colored man.

The Election.

MANY voters are unmindful that on Monday, August 6th, Kentucky is to elect her State officers and representatives. The Republican party is more active than ever before in the history of that party, in this State. On every hand they flaunt in our teeth, the taunting boast that they will cut down the Democratic majority 10,000. Democrats, we cannot afford this and must not. Too much depends on the issue to admit of any men staying at home. Kentucky belongs to the old guard of Democracy, and must not fall now or any time or under any circumstances. Following us in October, Ohio is to elect its Governor and other officers. In November Pennsylvania and New Jersey select State officers—each of these are doubtful, and in the impending Presidential contest are pivotal. A decreased majority in Kentucky will discourage and dispirit the struggling and gallant Democracy in those States. It is not a question of electing our candidates—it is assured; but how much shall the majority be? To increase it is to win; to lessen it is to lose! It is not only the privilege, but the duty of every man to vote.

Logan McKee Snubbed.

The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati News-Journal, telegraphed that Logan McKee, of Danville, prevailed on Phil Thompson to call with him at the White House, and the following result treatment ensued: "Mr. Thompson called with his constituent, McKee, about 3 o'clock. He sent in his card and the President returned the answer that he would not be at liberty to receive any visitor until 5 o'clock. Promptly at 5 o'clock Thompson and McKee knocked at the door of the White House and were admitted. The President was prompted also, and advancing took Thompson by the hand, utterly ignoring McKee. "Mr. President," said Thompson, "Let me introduce you to one of my respected constituents, Mr. Logan McKee." The President made most of his six feet, snuffed the air audibly, jumped over the cupids before recovered himself, and finally conquered an equilibrium by looking his hands behind back. "I refuse to take this man's hand, sir," he puffed, "His face is as familiar to me as the front of the White House. Mr. McKee has not signed. He has a right to resign. Who dares to question that right? I know this man McKee. He has been before me fifty or sixty times asking for a place, and I say he has no right to ask it when Swope has not resigned. Swope is a fixed quantity and will remain where he is."

Here Mr. McKee attempted to say that he was not an applicant for Swope's place when the President broke out in a violent query, "What was he there for?" Phil Thompson, seeing that there might be trouble, said, "Mr. President, we will not occupy your time any further." "Very well, sir," said the President, as he walked into an adjoining room, where Mr. Thompson says he heard unmistakable evidences that wassail and wine were the congenial companions in whose bosom Arthur sought refuge."

What Mr. Blackburn Says.

[Versailles Interview.]
His Kentucky delegation will exercise its own best judgement in the premises, and I shall be content with the action. I am not likely to become a supporter of Mr. Randall under any circumstances, and intelligent people will not be apt to believe it. I have never voted for him, and would be further from it than ever before. I have never sought preferment at the hands of a Speaker, do not feel that I need it, and certainly never have received it at the hands of Mr. Randall, even when all precedents had to be violated by him in order to avoid it. I have never learned trade in politics, nor do I propose to do so.

Lewis Bensch, a mail carrier in Lawrence county, of this State, walks and carries the mail a distance of 25 miles, to Eden. This a portion of the Star Route system on which millions have been squandered, yet it seems that this agent is too poorly paid to keep a horse.

SOMEONE must be going wrong with the roughs. A rot turn marshal has been killed in the State for three weeks. It may be that they are waiting until August election day, when a simultaneous onslaught will take place.

MILLERSBURG.

Johnnie Miller and wife arrived Friday from Atlanta.

Mr. E. P. Gamble now has something to talk about—a fine new boy baby.

Elder H. Turner will preach at the Christian Church here next Sunday at 11 a. m.

Dick Berratt became overpowered with heat yesterday in the harvest, but was alright yesterday.

The col'd folks had a three-days-banda festival and a general hog-killing of a time Saturday night.

Miss Maude Smalley has gone to Hutchinson to make her home during the mid summer days.

W. H. H. Johnson bought the iron fence yesterday at Lexington, for $800, for our public square.

Two young ladies amused themselves by tying a cat to a dog's tail and running it up street Friday night at lightning speed.

Prof. H. K. Taylor, of Vanceburg, Ky., has been elected, president of the Logan Female College, Louisville, vice professor Stark, resigned.

Jeff. M. Viment caught an eel three feet in length and two cat-fish nearly as long, on a trot line above the dam in Hixson, last Thursday.

Before the boys arrived from the mountains, a painful rumor was set afloat to the effect that Oompa Johnson had drowned in the mountains, but it proved untrue.

Miss Nannie Furnish, a handsome little brunette that graduated here about four years ago, was married, Thursday, to Mr. Harvey Berkeley, of Oxford, Scott county.

Josh Barton sold a yearling Cyprus Duke to J. Swope, of Versailles, for $200, and bought the two-year-old pacer Bandy Moore, from Capt. T. E. Moore, last week.

Ben. Thompson, Buck Layson, John Boudien, Jess Payne, John A. Miller, Jr., and several more of "Morgans horse thieves" will attend the reunion at Lexington to-day.

In New York they drown their noisy dogs; in Philadelphia they smother their dogs to death with will gas, which takes but five minutes; but here in Millersburg they are allowed to bark themselves to death, which takes all summer.

Harmon Stitt, Charlie McClintock, Ed. Ingels, Forrest Robertson and Camps Johnson have returned from a boating excursion on the Rockcastle river. They had big luck in hunting and fishing. They killed two deer and caught an eel 28 inches long and lots of smaller fish.

Hon. Ben. S. Robbins, State Senator from La Grange, the youngest and most brilliant member of the State Senate, and a former graduate of the Kentucky Wesleyan College of this place, will address the citizens here, Saturday, at 2:30 p. m. in behalf of the Democracy. Mr. Robbins is a bold and eloquent speaker, and every voter in the precinct should turn out to hear him. He will entertain and instruct all.

The News is happy to say that the telegram copied from a Texas paper in this department last week, stating that a man named Armstrong had been sentenced for life for the murder of a man named Boyd, was not our Bob Armstrong as was generally believed. Will Judy recently received a letter from Bob, in which he stated that he was out on bail and was running a passenger train as engineer, and that his trial would not take place until October. From what little we heard about the affair, we think Bob ought to be acquitted.

Thankfully Received.

THE BOURBON NEWS is out in a new nonpareil dress and is full of news, as usual. Mr. Champ certainly is deserving of the success he now enjoys, as almost any other man, with the limited means, would have made an ignominious failure, in the same field of labor, considering his opposition. The Bourbon News always contains as much local matter and general news condensed, to the square inch, as any other newspaper in the State. Editorially, the News is plain spoken and never caught lugging water on both shoulders. While always ready to defend, she is never afraid to condemn.—[Cynthiana Democrat.]

TAKE WARNING! HOT WEATHER!

IS DOWN UPON US WITH A SWOOP. SWELTERING HUMANITY consults the thermometer and the poor, perspiring mortal greets his prototype with the time-worn interrogation, "Hot enough for you?" and fiendishly smiles to himself as he reflects that he has succeeded in making another unhappy victim to "Old Sol's" rays somewhat warmer and more uncomfortable.

NOW, THEREFORE, instead of consulting the thermometer, come at once and interview US, and feel yourself a new man by donning some of our light, cool summer garments, and also REMEMBER THAT OUR LOW SCALE OF PRICES STILL HOLDS GOOD.
